NOTICE

If the attached records contain information regarding mental health and/or drug and alcohol treatment please read and follow the information presented below.

This information has been disclosed to you from records protected by federal confidentiality rules (42 CFR Part 2). The federal rules prohibit you from making any further disclosure of this information unless further disclosure is expressly permitted by the written consent of the person to whom it pertains to or as otherwise written permitted by 42 CFR Part 2. A general authorization for the release of medical or other information is NOT sufficient for this purpose. The federal rules restrict any use of the information to criminally investigate or prosecute any alcohol or drug abuse patient.

The regulations also have the following restrictions and requirements.

Statutory authority for confidentiality of drug/alcohol abuse patient records (42 CFR Section 2.1)

- a. Disclosure authorization - Identity, diagnosis, prognosis or treatment of any patient may not be disclosed except for purposes under subsection (b)
- b. Purposes and circumstances of disclosure affecting consenting patient and patient regardless of consent -
  1. May be disclosed in accordance with prior written consent of the patient . . .
  2. Whether or not the patient has given written consent, the content of such record may be disclosed as follows:
    - a. To medical personnel to the extent necessary to meet a bona fide medical emergency.
    - b. To qualified personnel for purpose of scientific research, audits, or program evaluation, but identity of patient may not be disclosed in any manner.
    - c. If authorized by appropriate court order of competent jurisdiction - after showing good cause - the record may be disclosed as ordered by the court.
  3. A minor patient's authorization may be required for disclosure, even to his or her parent, guardian or other legal representative.
- c. Armed Forces and Veterans' Administration: interchange of records; report of suspect child abuse and neglect to State or local authorities - The prohibitions of this section do not apply to any interchange of information with the above named organizations.

Medical Emergencies (42 CFR Section 2.51):

- a. General Rule - Under the procedures required by paragraph (c) of this section, patient identifying information may be disclosed to medical personnel who have a need for information about the patient for the purpose of treating a condition which poses an immediate threat to the health of any individual and which requires immediate medical intervention.
- b. Special Rule - Release to FDA because of health threat from product manufacturing, labeling or sale error.
- c. Procedure - Immediately document in patient record: 1. The name of the medical personnel to whom disclosure was made and their affiliation with any health care facility; 2. The name of the individual making the disclosure; 3. The date and time of the disclosure; and 4. The nature of the emergency (or error if report was to FDA).

Indiana Code (Release of Mental Health Records to Patient and Authorized Person I.C.

16-39-2-1 – I.C. 16-39-2-12):

Confidentiality - Disclosure A patient's mental health record is confidential and shall be disclosed only with the consent of the patient unless otherwise provided in the following:

1. This chapter (I.C. 16-39-2-1 – I.C. 16-39-2-12)
2. I.C. 16-39-3 (Release in investigations and legal proceedings)
3. I.C. 16-39-4 (Provisions of mental health information)
4. I.C. 16-39-5 (Use of original health record for legitimate business purposes)

Additionally ALL medical records are protected by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (P.L. 104-191 (1996) and regulations promulgated there under) and Title 16, Article 39 of the Indiana Code.
